THE NEW SCHOOL LAW.

As much interest is felt throughout the State in relation to the changes which were made in the School Law by the General Assembly at its last session, we publish the following in explanation thereof from Professor Mclver:

The amendment to the School Law, ratified Feb. 12, 1874, repeals the rules and regulations which the State Board of Education had adopted, and the provisions of which are substantially as follows:

That the school districts shall contain an area equal to from four to seven miles square.

That the school districts shall be as nearly square in form as the situation of the several localities and the conveniences of neighborhoods will permit.

That the school house shall be as near the centre of the school population of the district as practicable.

That the people of each district shall elect three suitable persons District Trustees, the people of each race electing their own Trustees.

That the District Trustees of each District shall solicit voluntary contributions to defray half the cost of building, repairing and furnishing the District school house, and to supplement the school money due the District, so that the public school may be continued each year, as long as the people of the District may desire; that they shall determine the time at which the school shall begin, recommend a teacher, who will be acceptable to the people of the District, and assist the School Committee in all matters relating to the District school.

These rules and regulations having been repealed by the General Assembly cannot be resuscited by the Board of Education.

The recent regulation which is published in a foot note on the blank forms of orders for school money has not been repealed. It remains in full force, and is as follows:

The law intends that the highest prices, to-wit: $20, $30 and $40, a month, according to grade of the teacher shall be paid only for schools in which twenty or more pupils are taught. If a number of pupils is less than twenty, the highest prices which may be paid out of the Public School Funds are: To a teacher who holds a third grade certificate one dollar a month for each pupil; to a teacher who holds a second grade certificate, one dollar and a half per month for each pupil; to a teacher who holds a first grade certificate, two dollars a month for each pupil, counting the number of pupils in all cases by their average attendance.

The act also changes the time at which the Registers of Deeds is required to report, from July to October of each year, and makes it the duty of school committees to report to the county Treasurer the sums of money apportioned to the school districts of their respective townships.

These are the only changes which have been made in the school law by the General Assembly at the last session, and they are published for information, in answer to many inquiries.

HOW AN ILLINOIS BANK WAS ROBBED.

The First National Bank of Quincy, Ill; was robbed Thursday night of $100,000 in currency and other valuables. The bank was entered by cutting through the hall floor of the second story, immediately over the vault. The burglars then made a breech through three feet of masonry. They next cut the rivets of a sheet of boiler iron, with which the vault is lined, and then descended into the vault. The safes inside, containing money, bonds and valuable papers, were charged with powder, and, by means of a small rubber tube, a train was carried to the top of the safe, when a small pistol was screwed to an old ledger and was so arranged as to set it off. A string was attached to the pistol and passed out of the second story window to the street below. The clock of the bank stopped at 2:17, at which time it is supposed the burglars fired the train. The doors of the safe was wrenched from its hinges. There is no clue to the perpetrators, but one McCoy, recently connected with the variety shows, has been arrested on suspicion.

PLAIN TALK FROM A BLACK CONGRESSMAN.

Congressman R. B. Elliott, (colored,) who is now in Columbia, made a speech in that city on Monday night, which is noteworthy as one of the sign of the times. He told his hearers that the Taxpayers' Convention was no assemblage of sorcheads, but that it was seeking to do the work which it was the duty of the Republican party to have accomplished. He rasped the State Administration without mercy for its violation of its most solemn pledges and washed his hands of all participation in its bad faith. The salvation of "The Party," he declared, depended upon its instant reform of existing abuses. A great change was taking place in the politics of the country, and it was useless for them to shut their eyes to the fact. If you go to the North, he said, and mention the name of South Carolina, you will find the estimate that they will put upon it there.

THE NUMBER SEVEN IN THE BIBLE.

On the seventh day God ended his work.

On the seventh month Noah's ark touched the ground.

In seven days a dove was sent.

Abraham pleaded seven times for Sodom.

Jacob mourned seven days for Joseph.

Jacob served seven years for Rachel.

And yet seven years more.

Jacob was pursued in a seven day's journey by Laban.

A plenty of seven years and a famine of seven years were foretold in Pharaoh's dream by seven fat and seven lean beasts and seven ears of full and seven ears of blasted corn.

On the seventh day of the seventh month the children of Israel fasted seven days and remained seven days in their tents.

Every seven days the land rested.

Every seventh year the law was read to the people.

In the destruction of Jericho, seven priests bore seven trumpets seven days. On the seventh day they surrounded the walls seven times, and at the end of the seventh round the walls fell.

Solomon was seven years building the Temple and fasted seven days at its dedication.

In the tabernacle were seven lamps.

The golden candlestick had seven branches.

Naaman washed seven times in the River Jordan.

Job's friend sat with him seven days and seven nights, and offered seven bullocks and seven rams for an atonement.

Our Saviour spoke seven times from the cross, on which he hung seven hours, and after his resurrection appeared seven times.

In the Revelation we read of seven churches, seven candlesticks, seven stars, seven trumpets, seven plagues, seven thunders, seven vials, seven angels, and a seven headed monster.—Independent.

DEFYING THE BUZZARDS.—A fellow who was in the habit of getting drunk whenever he went to town, in returning home one day, fell from his horse and was quite as thought dead. A buzzard spied him, flew round and round, and lighting near, hopped up and pecked his nose, which aroused the fellow a little. The bird stepped up and struck him again; this brought one eye open, and seeing his position and that the bird thought he was dead, he wreathed his lips with drunken scorn, and looking the bird square in the face, said: "You needn't be so d—d smart; I'm not so dead as you think I am."

'Would you believe the witness under oath?' asked a lawyer. 'No, sir,' was the reply. 'If you should ask him the time of day, he would lie about it.'

THE PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW.

SEC. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of any county, upon petition of one-fourth of the qualified voters of any township in their respective counties, to order an election to be held on the first Monday in May in every year, to ascertain whether or not spirituous liquors shall or may be sold in said township or township.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the sheriff of each county to hold such township elections as are required under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed by law for holding elections for members of the General Assembly, so far as the same may be applicable, except as herein modified.

SEC. 3. That any person allowed by law to vote for members of the general assembly shall have the right to vote at such elections in the township where he is allowed to vote, and every such voter who favors the prohibition of the sale of spirituous liquors in his township, shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed 'prohibition,' and every such voter who favors such sale, shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the word 'license.'

SEC. 4. That on the day next after any such election shall be held, the inspectors of such election and a justice of the peace of the township shall compare the votes polled in the township, and certify the number of votes cast in favor of 'prohibition,' and the number in favor of 'license,' and the result of such election to the Register of Deeds of the county, who shall first carefully copy such certificate in a book to be prepared and kept for that purpose, and then file the same among the papers of his office, and a certified copy from the book in which said certificate is so registered under the hand of the Register of Deeds, and the seal of the county shall be sufficient evidence in all cases and courts in this State of the result of such election in the township to which the same may refer.

SEC. 5. That if a majority of the votes cast at any such election in any township shall have written or printed on the same the word 'prohibition,' then and in that case, it shall not be lawful for the county commissioners to license the sale of spirituous liquors, or for any person to sell any spirituous liquors within such township for one year next after any such election, and if any person so prohibited shall sell any spirituous liquors within such township, such person offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of such offence shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one month. But if a majority of the votes so cast shall have written or printed on the same the word 'license,' then spirituous liquors may be sold in such township as now provided by law and not otherwise. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall effect localities in which the sale of spirituous liquors are prohibited by law.

SEC. 6. The sheriff shall designate the justice of the peace in each township to aid in comparing and certifying the vote cast at any such election, and the register of deeds shall designate inspectors of elections in each township. In case he shall fail, the sheriff or his deputies shall make such appointment, and if any officer or other person shall fail to discharge any duty imposed by this act, such person offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction in the Superior court fined in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of April, 1874.

THE SIAMESE AUTOPSY.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, was present at the report on the autopsy of the Siamese twins gives the following details not furnished by the telegraph:

THE LIVER OF EACH

individual lay close to the band, adjacent the one to other, hence the liver of one was abnormally placed on the side contrary to that in which reposed the liver of the other. In fatal life it is conjectured that the twain had a common liver, as an injection in the mesenteric vein of one passed into the mesentric vein of the other. They also possessed a common navel, or umbilical cord, which until the moment of investigation was a matter of great doubt.

ANOTHER PECULIAR FACT

is that the brain of the smaller was the most acute and powerful, although he was the most disgusted of the pair. Often saw a jolly "hail fellow well met," while the smaller one was peevish and fretful, although the contract with the family prevents any examination of the brain, the great contrast in disposition shows the brain of each to have been totally and entirely distinct. The investigation has, thus far, not proceeded to the heart, and this organ is as yet involved in mystery, as the brain and liver of the two are distinct. As a matter of course, however, there cannot be a single heart.

The livers, which may have once been united, are now seperated, and on account of its abnormality furnishes in itself a curious study. The brain of each is indecent, as likewise are the hearts. The statement as to a joint missing in the middle of the hand is incorrect and ridiculous, there being no division of the cartilages or attachment of such a nature.

THEIR MODE OF RESTING IN BED.

It is supposed that during life each slept upon his stomach; while the nervous independence of each is again established from the fact that while one slept soundly the other was known to be awake. The cause of the blood rushing from one to the other at the time of the demise is explained in the fact that, independent of the pouches, which are simply reflections of the peritonial membrane, there exists arteries which in case of separation during life, might have been tied, as they could have been had the one who died last cut a piece of flesh from the one who expired first.

THE PRINCETON DISASTER.

The steamer Princeton was bound up the Potomac on the morning of February 28th, 1844, having on board a large number of people, including President John Tyler, his cabinet, a large number of Senators, Representatives and distinguished citizens, many with their wives and daughters. The occasion was a fete given by Capt. Stockton, the Princeton having just shipped the largest gun then known, 'the Peacemaker,' which carried a solid shot weighing 225 lbs. As Alexandria came in view, Capt. Stockton said privately to the President and Cabinet that he would fire a parting salute from the Peacemaker in honor of George Washington, the great peacemaker of his country,' and for their particular gratification, as the gun was an experiment in the machinery of death, and great curiosity prevailed with regard to its character. The President and party started up the cabin stairs when the President was recalled to hear a toast proposed by a young lady, then well known, Miss Wickliffe, who gave the sentiment, 'The Flag of America: the only thing that is American that will bear a stripe.' The Secretary of State, Mr. Upshur (Va.) had also returned with the President, when he was again urged to the deck that he might witness the firing, but the announcement of a national song retained Mr. Tyler, and Upshur went on deck alone. As the name of 'Washington' was pronounced by the singer, loud came the report of the gun, and in the midst of the excitement, the master of ceremonies called for three cheers. Before a voice could utter a responsive shout, the boatswain's mate rushed into the cabin, black with powder and blood dripping from his garments, exclaiming in broken sentences that the gun had exploded and killed everybody on deck. The cries of wives, whose husbands had been at their side a moment before, the shrieks of daughters for their fathers, the rushing of men, and fainting of women, the trembling of the ship and the cloud of smoke that enveloped the vessel above and below without and within, combined to produce a scene almost indescribable for its pain and horror. When the smoke had risen, the lower part of the gun-lay upon the lifeless, bleeding body of the Secretary of State, who expired before he could be taken from its trammels. Gen. Gilmer, of Virginia, lay senseless beside Mr. Upshur, and also expired before any assistance could be rendered him. Virgil Maxey, of Maryland, was horribly mutilated and a member of Congress from New York, lived half an hour without, however, giving any token of consciousness; and Commodore Kennon, who had watched the gun with great interest, lay mangled and senseless, and breathed his last within the same period.

The Secretary of War, Judge Wilkins, did not trust the gun, and had retired a moment before the firing, thus saving his life. The wife of Gen. Gilmer, with eyes fixed and tearless, gazed at the dead body of her husband, to whom she was passionately attached, and who had been dancing with her and hour previously. Dumb with agony, white with terror, and quivering in the anguish of the scene, she was borne away by sorrow-stricken friends, and suddenly sent back upon the affrighted air shriek upon shriek of madness and despair. The daughters of Commodore Gardiner threw themselves upon the bloody corpse of their father and piteously bemoaned his cruel death.

The victims were conveyed to Washington, where five hearses bore the dead to the President's mansion. The coffins were arranged in the center of the east room, according to the rank of those who slept within them.

The catastrophe had occurred on Wednesday; on Saturday the funeral took place amid all the mournful pomp the living could pay as a tribute to the dead; and mid the tolling of bell and heavy resonance of minute guns, the coffins were laid within their final resting place in the Congressional burying ground.

A piece of a deer's leg found imbedded in the heart of an oak tree thirty feet above the ground is a sufficient cause for wonderment among Pennsylvania scientists.

When your pocket-book gets empty, and everybody knows it, you can put all your friends in it and it won't 'bulge out' worth a cent.

Epitaph for an aeronaut—'Gone up.'

BISHOP JOHNS TO MR. LATANE.

Rev Mr. Latane of Wheeling having lately withdrawn from the Episcopal Church, Bishop Johns of the Diocese of Virginia writes the following letter which is a model for all controversialists:

You know how full our theological views harmonize. I also agree with you in reference to grievances of which you complain, though I think you over estimated their extent and power. That I regard you as mistaken as to the duty which these grievances impose on the Clergy and Laity of the Church, and as to the proper mode of obtaining relief, the previous pages sufficiently disclose. You will believe me when I assure you of the great reluctance with which I make to you this communication in this mode, but your letter in print and published left me no choice.

In what I have thus written there is, I hope, not a word discordant with the fraternal relation which have obtained since our intercourse began, or to impair them in the future.

The Scriptural example which you adduce to support your policy of withdrawal I readily accept, and fervently hope it will have your entire conformity. Paul and Barnabas had "sharp contention," and they "departed asunder one from the other"—sought separate spores of service, but was all—neither of them withdrew from the Church. If, however, you think you must make the experiment, I trust that you will only depart for a season that we "may receive you forever a brother beloved." And if my already prolonged life is extended so far, you will find me ready at the entrance, or rather hastening as fast as my tottering steps will permit, to meet you, to accompany and welcome you to your earthly home.

Then may I say, as did the aged Simeon, "Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes has seen Thy salvation. Mean-while,—Yours truly,

J. Johns.

ONE OF BEAU HICKMAN'S TRICKS.

Beau once made a raid on the Baltimore restaurants. He walked into Guy's saloon and asked for the proprietor.

'Sir,' said he, 'I want the best dinner you can give me.'

'All right, sir,' said Mr. Guy; 'walk in here,' showing him into a neat little private room.

The Beau ate and drank of the best, and just after he had finished his cup of café noir and had lit his havana, a servant entered with a folded paper on a silver waiter, which he gravely handed to the Beau.

'What is this?' inquired the Beau.

'De bill, sah,' said the waiter.

'Bill; I don't want any bill. Ask the proprietor to come here.'

The proprietor appeared, bowing and smiling; he hoped there was nothing wrong, and that his guest had liked his dinner.

'I liked the dinner well enough, and the wine, 'but I want to know what this means.'

'That's the bill, sir,' said the proprietor.

'Well I never pay any bills. I am Beau Hickman. I don't pay anybody. Besides, you have no right to charge me for this dinner. I asked you for the best dinner you could give me.'

'Well, Beau, you have rung in on me and got the better of me fairly. Now I'll not only forgive you for this trick, but I'll give you $25 dollars if you will play this trick on the St. Clair, on the other side of the way.'

The next day the Beau fared sumptuously at the St. Clair, and the scene was re-enacted. The bill was presented, and the proprietor wound up with 'Beau, I'll give you $50 if you will play this off on Guy.'

'My dear sir,' said the Beau, 'why didn't I call here first? Guy has paid me $25 to play it on you.'

WEDNESDAY, ... MAR. 11, 1874.

THE PROHIBITORY LAW.

The Act in relation to this subject will be found on the first page of this issue.

The general tendency to reform is manifesting itself through the whole country in modes and forms which are not to be mistaken, and which can no longer pass unheeded. It is the spontaneous upheaval of society, the grand expression of public sentiment, impatient of a vice which has so long cursed the land, and resolved to overthrow the cause of it to its foundation.

The growth of this feeling is seen in the spreading influence and activity among the various Temperance organizations; in the imperative demands for legislative interference; and more conspicuously, if not more wisely, in the demonstrations of the women of the west, who, goaded to desperation by the degradation of husbands, fathers, and sons, have laid aside all the tender considerations of sex, and taken the law into their own hands.

Our own Legislature has devoted much of its time in action upon the subject, and has thrown the safeguard of a legal shield over many communities. By a general permissive enactment, it has given every community in the State the privilege, by its own volition, to fall behind the protection of this shield. It remains to be seen how many will accept the security.

We are opposed to general prohibitory laws, as acts of legislation. They oppose all the dictates and instincts of human nature. They are impertinent and oppressive, and act upon a principle of repression which is repugnant to the idea of personal freedom. They accomplish no good, if not positive harm. If they apparently succeed in their object, it is only the treacherous crust formed over the volcano. The fires are still burning beneath, sure to find a vent at some time, and in some way, with increased powers of destruction.

But laws, sought for by individual communities, to receive their force and validity by their own volition and sanction, leaving other communities to act freely and as they think best for their own interests, place the question in an altogether different light. It becomes a fair struggle, through that best mode for the expression of opinion, the ballot, to decide for the supremacy of will. A question is submitted upon its merits, sifted by argument, and tested by its strength. If it fails, it only demonstrates that popular sentiment does not favor it. If it succeeds, the losing party has no cause to complain of the success of a majority. Here no enforcement of measures by extraneous influences, or by a power ignorant of, or hostile to, the sentiment of the community. It is the act of the people themselves, deciding for themselves as their own judgment, or sense of right and propriety dictate.

Of such nature is the Act to which we refer, and it remains to be seen whether this township and others in which this paper circulates, will avail themselves of its provisions.

We suppose, from what we learn, that the Commissioners will be called upon in this township to order an election. We have no space at present for further remark, except to indicate our approval of the idea, and to tender our further services in advocacy of it.

THE FERTILIZER ACT.

We give due credit to the sincere interest for the welfare of the farming interest indicated by the bill introduced during the late session of the Legislature for the prevention of frauds in the sale of commercial manures. The introducer of the bill had his eye upon times past when it was only necessary to impregnate a certain amount of dirt with a sufficiently offensive odor to dignify it with the name of 'Fertiliser.'

But it is evident now, that the sharp competition between manufacturers, (for the fertilizers are now all artificial,) will not permit the imposition of spurious or inert compounds. An inferior article will be driven from the market at once.

Nor will the amount of capital invested in the manufacture, connected with the rapid deterioration of machinery under chemical influences, sustain the production of an inferior article. To keep up machinery by repair or replacement, implies steady and abundant demand, which a really good article will alone produce.

Assuming this, (and we think we are warranted in doing so) a fidelity of manufacture, we fear this not only great injustice will be done to establishments at the South, in which heavy capital is invested, and in which the highest chemical talent, and the purest personal integrity are connected, but a serious blow given to agricultural interests, through the very means taken to advance them.

In regard to the last, the wide spreading of fertilizers has come in most opportunely to supply the deficiency of labor. It is certain that the supply of cotton has been maintained to its present magnitude by the aid of fertilizers. The withdrawal of full one half the laboring force would otherwise have reduced the production in like ratio. North Carolina without the fertilizers, could never even rebound, as she now does, with the cotton States.

How unwise then to destroy the very foundation upon which her agricultural greatness is built, by the imposition of pains and penalties for the use of that very thing which has built her up.

The manufacture of fertilizers will not cease. It is too remunerative, and too important. But other States will reap the benefit of them while North Carolina will be remanded to her original indifference as a cotton grower. The law must either remain a dead letter on the Statute book, a piece of idle legislation, or its literal enforcement will place the cotton planter of this State at such disadvantage that he must either abandon the culture, or emigrate to more fertile lands.

PETERSBURG.

This city was thrown into a state of frenzied delight over the passage of the act granting a new charter.

Only those who know Petersburg in her present depression and can trace her prostration to its proper cause, can realise the immense consequence to her of this measure. Since the war she has scarcely made a step forward, and while her sister cities of Virginia have doubled in population, and quadrupled in business, Petersburg alone has stood still, if not actually retrograded. The blight of radical rule has withered her energies, almost stifled her existence. It is over now, and the city will soon re-assume her old life and activity.

We tender our sincere congratulations.

NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

A new congregation has been formed in Raleigh, under the name of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Tucker Hall has been leased for the present place of worship, but a church edifice will be erected at an early day. The Rev. Mr. Rich is in charge.

☞ The News intimates that we do injustice to Gen. Ransom in our remarks last week on his opinions. Such was not our intention, nor was it, we think, our language. We did not mean to say that General Ransom's views were based upon his own individual disappointment, but were derived from others who had suffered from the evils complained of.

We regret to add, that there is reason to admit that the inference of Gen. R. had a much broader foundation in the section of which he speaks than we had believed possible.

☞ The News thinks it unwise to agitate now the law regarding fertilisers. An article which appears in this issue was written and in the hands of the compositor before we had seen any expression of opinion on the subject. We do not withdraw it, because we cannot withhold the expression of regret that such a law was passed, especially after having seen its detrimental effect upon the dealers in fertilizers in Richmond and Norfolk—effects which must act directly upon the farmers of this State, and tell damagingly upon the coming crops of cotton and tobacco.

MARKETS.

TOBACCO.—The Tobacco Leaf of the 4th says the market is not as satisfactory as could be desired. There is a want of equilibrium. Every thing good is very high, and every thing indifferent is very low. Assortments are still wanting. The English market has slightly improved, which will have its permanent effect here after awhile.

Time Tests the Merits of all Things.

1840 Over Thirty Years 1872,

PERRY DAVIS'

PAIN-KILLER,

HAS been tested in every variety of climate and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler, on sea or land, and no one should travel on our Lakes or Rivers without it.

Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced and met with such extensive sale, many *Lenitives, Reliefs, Panacea*s, and other Remedies have been offered to the public, but not one of them has ever attained the truly valuable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

WHY IS THIS SO?

It is because DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be a Reliever of Pain.

Its Merits are Unsurpassed.

If you are suffering from INTERNAL PAIN, Twenty to Thirty Drops in a little Water will almost instantly cure you. There is nothing so equal it for Colic, Cramps, Spasms, Hurt burn, Diarrhœa, Dissentery, Flux, Wind in the Bowels, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache.

In sections of the country where prevails, there is no remedy held in greater esteem. Persons traveling should keep it by them. A few drops, in water, will prevent sickness or bowel troubles from change of water.

From Foreign countries the calls for Pain Killer are great. It is found to

Cure Cholera when all other Remedies Fail

When used Externally as a Liniment, nothing gives quicker ease to Burns, Cuts Bruises, Sprains, Stings from Insects, and Scalds. It removes the fire, and the wound heals like ordinary sores. Those suffering with RHEUMATISM, GOUT, or NEURALGIA, if not a positive cure, they find the PAIN-KILLER gives them relief when no other remedy will.

It gives instant relief from Aching Teeth.

Every House-Keeper should keep it at hand, and apply it on the first attack of any Pain. It will give satisfactory relief, and save suffering.

Do not trifle with yourself by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine PAIN KILLER, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable Medicine.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

Price 25c., 35c., and $1 per Bottle.

MEETING.

A meeting will be held at the Court House on Saturday the 14th inst. to give those wishing to join the Grangers the opportunity to do so. A full attendance is desired.

Amendments to the Charter.

The late session of the Legislature passed an Act amending the charter of the town of Hillsboro, giving the Commissioners of the town authority to levy a tax of fifty cents on the hundred dollars of real estate and $1-50 on the poll, and not exceeding $30, on retailers of malt liquors.

This enlargement of power will enable the commissioners to do what cannot stand waiting much longer if they neglect the streets and bridges, as has been so long done. Streets will become as bad as the worst roads in the country, and the culverts will have to be crossed by logs and hand poles. When Tobe Ray starts with his or from the depot on a rainy day, it is always problematical whether he will ever get through or not. Now, it is not a hard matter to make the streets decent and passable, and by the commissioners will now be without excuse, it is to be hoped they will do somthing.

Presbyterian Parsonage.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church of this place has recently purchased the dwelling late the property of Mrs. W. H. Bagley, and are repairing and fitting it up for the occupation of their much respected pastor, Mr. Fitzgerald. It is a happy indication of the growth and prosperity of the denomination in this place.

Fences &c.

We are glad to see so much attention shown to the renovation of fences in almost every part of town. Old fences are being torn down, and new and substantial ones taking their place. This is cheering. Now put on the paint.

Gymnasium.

Under the supervision of Mr. Naumann, a very complete gymnasium has been erected on the ample grounds of Horner and Graves school. This supplies a want which marks almost all southern schools, and sets an example which should be everywhere followed.

"HEAD QUARTERS" FOR ALL THE

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

We noticed in Wilmington the other day, [illegible] which had just [illegible] and which was invented [illegible] the unloading of tobacco. It is a good thing in its way. It has large [illegible] which will easily carry from 500 to 800 pounds of leaf tobacco, and from the truck the leaf is [illegible] to bulk, thus saving the labor and time of the packing. Under the old plan tobacco had to be handled each time taken from the wagon and, after being weighed, had to be handled again in [illegible] from the box and bulked on the floor. The [illegible] labor is saved by the use of the truck (which they facetiously call "Corn Snakes"). Finding it so convenient, the proprietors are going to have several more made.

We also observe that a new office has been built near the center of the house, with several lock combinations which will help us live to dispatch business in time of a fire.—Fayetteville Observer.

Since the above was published, they have now dig and can unload Tobacco in one fourth the time that it takes to pack on the old boxes and then pack on the floor.

"Their Name is Legion," may be applied to those who lay claim to the quality of Consumptives, although the number of late years greatly diminished their number. It is gratifying to know that the general use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is largely instrumental in attaining this end.

Eminent Men of Science have discovered that electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the iron in the blood. This accounts for the debility, low spirits, and lack of energy a person feels when this vital element becomes reduced. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of iron, supplies the blood with its iron element, and is the only form in which it is possible to prevent the circulation.

E. H. Pogue is putting up the fixtures in his new tobacco factory, and will be ready to go to work about the first of April.

NORFOLK.

Our Norfolk Correspondence.

Norfolk, March 1st, 1874.

Editor Recorder:—Since my last letter, dated Nov. 1871, [illegible] Sunday was a day [illegible] and in a few [illegible] announcement [illegible] of old St. [illegible] Bingham Gilmer is dead, [illegible] impossible [illegible] which [illegible] of his [illegible] a lofty [illegible] ity in [illegible] very foremost men in public affairs. He was personally known to many of your most distinguished men—there are those in your midst, Mr. Recorder, who have met him on the large theatre of public affairs—and his fellow actors in the scenes of the past will bear abundant testimony to his worth and ability in your State as they do in this. To-day the members of the bar held a meeting to express their respect for his memory. In the assembly, which was very large and imposing, your correspondent noted Judge Biggs and Colonel F. W. Hinton, and Major W. H. Baker and other Virginians of South Carolina birth, together with such men as Judge Seabrught, Judge Rowe, Judge Hughes, of the U. S. Court, and all the other able gentlemen who had once occupied the Bench, or will now have their seats upon it. The venerable Tazewell Taylor, a lawyer of great distinction presided, and a committee of nine eminent gentlemen reported the resolutions. These were eloquent in their tribute to the worth and virtues of the deceased, and I may safely say that I have rarely seen a more finished composition. A member of gentleman spoke on the report of the report, and among them Colonel Hinton, with a grave and sober eloquence. As I listened to the expressions of respect, and admiration for the dead I felt better satisfied with human nature, for General Millson had not affected to be in sympathy with the party to which the great majority of these present are ardently attached; nor had he affiliated with the dominant party of the country. Politically he had been isolated, and in his life had stood in a most unique and difficult position. But his private virtues had triumphed over political asperities, and I can safely assure you that I have never seen more general expressions of sorrow and respect at the bier of any man than those of you, than were displayed over the remains of John S. Millson, whose harmony, though politically in antagonism to his views, I can award my admiration. His funeral was as you may suppose, the event of this season thus far; and I trust that it will be many a day before Norfolk is called on to witness such another scene as that to which I have alluded rather than described.

The general news and local trifles which constitute the staple of such letters as editors desire to receive, would be out of place in this, for which reason I shall add nothing to this chapter of the States necrology. H.

Correspondence of Recorder.

Durham, March 6th, 1874.

Editor Recorder:—This week has passed off quietly, without anything to create excitement or mar the happiness of any one, so far as I know. For the past two days we have had the remnant of a horse-drove with us, but they were so few and so quiet on that they did not attract even the attention of the darkies and boys. Generally, the appearance of a drove of horses and mules creates great excitement in Durham; all go to look at them, and by the way it is a good place to trade.

Tobacco has sold at good prices this week, and most of the farmers have gone home well pleased and with a determination to bring their full crops here.

One tierce of fine Tobacco sold at $1.08 per lb; another small lot at $1.01 per lb. The mouth that chews that tobacco ought to be very clean and nice.

On Friday the Grangers held their regular meeting. I learn they are growing in numbers. Success to them!

On Thursday Col. Gilman leased the large Plug Factory, and anticipates putting it into operation next week.

Mr. C. H. Conrad of Danville, has located at Durham, for the purpose of purchasing and shipping leaf tobacco.

The Durham people expect to be made happy over another wedding next week.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh Year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications my claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory.

TERMS.

$3 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

FOR 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publisher, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS

A Great Tonic Medicine is found in VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display an decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protoxid of Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
